Clinical Trials Without Compromise
eCaseLink Electronic Data Capture

eCaseLink EDC

The most Innovation and Experience for your Clinical Studies.

Speed, efficiency, and accuracy are must-haves for your clinical study. DSG eCaseLink™ not only meets these critical needs but goes above and beyond to be your ultimate tool for clinical trial success. One global team using our own tools to capture and manage clinical data spanning two decades to thousands of clinical trails in 93 countries. How many CROs can claim this?

You need an electronic data capture (EDC) solution to be agile, super fast with zero down time, cost-effective, and very easy to use. In such a competitive industry, you want a solution that integrates with your clinical trial management system (CTMS), interactive response technologies (IRT), and many more products, which may be sourced through single or multiple vendors. At DSG, we offer trial sponsors and CROs the flexible, adaptive technology and dedicated support they need to bring new life-changing drugs and therapies to market with complete regulatory approval.

There is fast, and there is
